25X1C 1. [redacted] 1951, twenty jet fighters, four of which were ready for take-off, three single-engine planes, and three biplanes were seen at Dessau airfield. Flying was not observed. Trucks [redacted] 25X1C
25X1C [redacted] were observed.

25X1C 2. [redacted] 1951, three biplanes, four two-seater aircraft with radial engines and 16 jet fighters with swept-back wings and covered with tarpaulins were counted in the eastern section of the Dessau airfield. Six jet fighters with swept-back wings, including one with the number 313, were parked near the flight control station on the southern edge of the field. The radio installation, located on northeastern edge of the field, was still there. *

25X1A * [redacted] Comment. The occupation of the field has not changed. One fighter regiment equipped with MiG-15s is stationed at the field. The planes have red three-digit numbers of which the first figure is a 3. [redacted] 25X1A
25X1A [redacted] The aircraft with radial engines are Yak-11 trainers. The motor vehicle numbers mentioned, previously observed in Dessau, are believed to belong to the ground personnel of this regiment.
